

Asian-American Government Executives Network
(www.aagen.org)

Invites you to a dinner meeting event with

Tommy Hwang

Chief Information Officer

The Merit Systems Protection Board

Social Networking for Federal Managers: To Connect or Not To Connect

March 11, 2010, 6:30 PM TO 8:30 PM

RSVP: Andy Manriquez (andyman51@verizon.net)

Pre-registered: $25 for members; $30 for non-members $35 at the event. Payment by check or cash only

China Garden Restaurant, 1100 Wilson Blvd, Arlington VA

AAGEN is a 501(c)3 non-profit, non-partisan organization of the highest ranking Asian Pacific American career and appointed executives, foreign service officers, legislative and judiciary members, and military officers in the Federal, state, and local governments.

SYNOPSIS

The presenter will discuss the current social networking tools, federal government agencies presence on popular social networking sites, whether you should connect or not connect, and the do's and don'ts of social networking.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Tommy Hwang has been the CIO of the Merit Systems Protection Board since January, 2005. Before joining MSPB, Mr. Hwang worked as the Assistant Inspector General and CIO of the Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Inspector General. Mr. Hwang entered the federal government directly as a member of the Senior Executive Service. Prior to government, Mr. Hwang worked for fifteen years in the IT industry in companies such as Price Waterhouse Coopers, Accenture, C.C. Pace Systems, Verizon and CareerBuilder. He is also currently volunteering as the Director of Outreach for AAGEN – in this role, he created the Facebook Fan Page for AAGEN. Mr. Hwang has a Computer Science degree from Virginia Tech.